

TRAILS AT PARMELEE FARM,
WELTER WOODS, PLATT NATURE CENTER,
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH MADISON

Trail Description

- PARMELEE TRAIL (blue), 1 mile: fairly easy walk, moderate hills, some roots and rocks
- PAVELKA TRAIL (red), 1.8 miles: moderate walk, somewhat steeper climbing, rocky sections.
- BOSCO TRAIL (white), 1.6 miles: moderate walk, a few steeper sections.
- WELTER TRAIL (purple), 1.2 miles: moderate walk connecting Parmelee Farm (Route 81) and Platt Nature Center (Roast Meat Hill Rd.). Parking available at both ends of trail.
- HIRD TRAIL (orange), 1 mile: easy loop walk, accessed from P.N.C. Trail or Welter Trail.
- PLATT NATURE CENTER (P.N.C.) TRAIL (white), 0.7 mile: moderate hike with gentle slopes and wetland boardwalk.

RESTRICTIONS: Motorized vehicles prohibited. Dogs must be on leash. Owners must clean up after their dogs (bags and disposal boxes available).

Trails are managed by the Killingworth Land Conservation Trust, in cooperation with the Town's Parmelee Farm Committee. Please visit killingworthlandconservationtrust.org